Lower School Weekly News

News

Welcome back everyone. The club list will go home today. All clubs will begin on Tuesday 3rd May.

The last week of term was very busy with the play, Final Assembly and House Challenge Day. Congratulations go to Conisford House on winning the Champion House Trophy for last term.

Over the holidays the ski trip enjoyed sunny weather as did the canoe course. We will print pictures next week.

The end of year assessment timetable will go home on Thursday this week. Revision periods should now begin for all.

House Challenge Day...

Congratulations to Conisford who won the trophy after a tense final round quiz. There were lots of new challenges this year requiring even more skill and teamwork.

Murder at the Crumhorn Hotel... Congratulations to all those involved in such a fantastic production. Once again the Mr Worton produced a performance of high quality acting and amazing costumes, scenery and make-up.
