Lower School Weekly News

News

The bad weather on Monday saw an early finish to the day for many pupils. Fortunately it did not settle in and create hazardous journeys for too many parents on their way home.

This week we have the Beginners' Concert. This is a chance for our newest musicians to take to the stage. Please come along and support them.

German Club returns on Tuesdays for those who signed up.

There is still room for a few tables at the PTA Quiz and Supper evening on 27 February. Please let Mrs Payton know if you would like to attend.

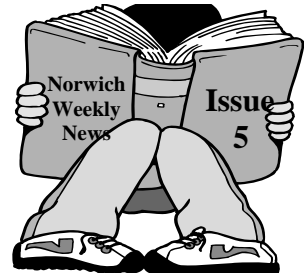

Half-Term begins at the end of school on Friday and I hope everyone enjoys their well earned break.

Ready Steady Cook!

The pupils enjoyed a cookery demonstration by Chartwells (the School's caterers) on Thursday (more pictures overleaf). Find out if Mrs Wright's Reds beat Mr Brook's Greens.

Ready Steady Cook

The school enjoyed a fantastic cookery demo led by Darren from Chartwells. The end result was close but was a win for the Green Pepper team led by Mr Brook. Our thanks to Sarah and John from the school refectory for organising it.

Book Fair

Many thanks to all those who supported the Book Fair.

Drugs Awareness

The Third Form enjoyed a visit from the Community Policing Team. They helped inform the group about the terrible effects of drug abuse on friends & family.
