Lower School Weekly News

News

Welcome back after half-term. The lighter evenings see the return of the outdoor clubs, which all begin this week.

The gate codes have been changed over half-term and the new number has been written in the pupils' prep diaries. Please contact the school office if you need confirmation of the number.

There are two trips on Thursday. Pupils will be reminded if they have not yet returned the permission slip.

Mr Worton has some reminders about the school play. This Saturday all actors are required for a rehearsal from 9am-1pm. All must attend! No uniform required. Please bring drinks, snacks and quiet games/books to keep you occupied while waiting for your scenes. Information about costumes will be provided very soon. Can anyone please lend an armchair for the lounge scenes? It needs to have arms that a boy can perch on. Please let us know asap. Everyone should now know all their lines!

Chamber Choir sing at Ely Cathedral

The Third form members of the chamber choir enjoyed a choral workshop at Kings' Ely and finished the day by singing in Ely Cathedral.

Beginners' Concert

Well done to all those who played in our recent concert. Many for the first time.

Third Form Crime Investigators!

After a terrible burglary at school, in which the House trophies were stolen, the Third Form CSI team were called in to solve the crime using advanced DNA techniques. Many thanks to Mrs Jarrold for organising an exciting science day.

Star Certificate congratulations to all those who have achieved their 20 or 40 star certificates.
