Lower School Weekly News

News

Congratulations to the Form One parents' quiz team 'Dunnett's Dunces' who won the PTA quiz. The night was a huge success and the money raised will go towards special projects throughout the school.

The Hockey team had two wins and a defeat against Taverham, with the 'A' team recording a well deserved win.

On Friday we are having our book character day and charity cake sale. There will be a parade in the Hall and other events to help promote reading within the school.

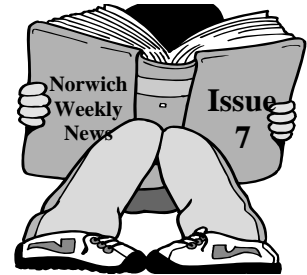

County Tennis Star!

Congratulations on being selected for the Norfolk County U10 tennis team.

Carrow Road Trip. The Lower Ones had an exciting behind the scenes look at Norwich City Football Club. Among the areas they toured were the team room, media centre and the pitch area. Mr Cordy was appointed caretaker manager for the day.
