Lower School Weekly News

News

Welcome back everyone and a special welcome to our 50 new pupils and Miss Porter in 1P. The term has got off to an excellent start and the weather continues to offer the chance of field break for a while longer.

Parents will have received a letter regarding contact details if you have not returned please do so this week. Hopefully, with clubs now starting the car park will be less busy.

All parents our welcome to our drinks party next Monday in order to welcome new parents and meet the teachers.

This newsletter is issued every Monday so do please search your child's bag for it! It can also be found online as an edited version on our website. If any parent objects to their child's photograph appearing in the newsletter please do let the school know.

I hope everyone has a busy and enjoyable term.

Welcome!

The newest addition to the Lower School staff is Miss Ella Porter who is Form Tutor in Form One and in charge of Girls' Games.

Clubs

All clubs and activities begin this week. If you wish to join a club and have not signed up please contact the teacher in charge to join.
