Lower School Weekly News

News

Wintry weather put paid to our weekend fixtures but there are matches for U9s and U11s this week.

The Christmas Fair draws ever closer and the pupils are all in preparation for running their stalls on Saturday. Donations of books, toys and cakes are most welcome. If you are running a stall please have a small tub to collect your money in.

Mrs Riche has asked for library books that have been read to be returned. Pupils should not have more than one checked out. If you find one in your tray please return it ASAP.

Songs for the Carol Service needs to be learned this week so do please spend some extra time going over the words at home.

Michaelmas Concert

The Lower School pupils provided a feast of musical entertainment. The standard was again most impressive. The audience particularly enjoyed the singing with Form Two's Tudor Song provided an amusing History lesson as well. Well done to all those who enthusiastically took part.

Bad Tie Tights Day

There seemed to be as many tights as ties on display with 3L modelling some excellent examples of bad fashion. Where did the boys get so many pairs of pink tights from?
