Lower School Weekly News

News

Open Day was busy with an increase on visitors from last year. Many thanks to all the pupils who came and offered help, in particular the guides who were complemented on numerous occasions for their confident and informative tours.

The visit of author Jenny Nimmo was hugely popular. Her talk on how she invented her characters was fascinating.

This week the Third Form leave for an exciting few days in the Peak District. Hopefully the good weather will continue.

The U9 season starts this week with the girls playing hockey at St. Felix and the boys playing football at Langley. Parental support is most welcome.

NHC Crab Hunt

The Natural History Club enjoyed their first trip out of the year in search of crabs at Walberswick. See page 2 to see who caught the biggest crab.
