Lower School Weekly News

News

Welcome back everyone! Last half-term finished with many excellent performances in the House Music Festival. My congratulations go to everyone who took part so enthusiastically and, in particular, to Heigham who secured a double victory in the Music and House Star competitions.

The school said goodbye and good luck to Mr Embling who retired after 20 years teaching at Norwich School and 37 years teaching in total. He thanked everyone for his present and also those who made a donation to the MS Society.

The Harvest Festival in School Chapel saw excellent singing by both the school and choir. The Salvation Army expressed their thanks for the many gifts donated.

This Thursday we have an informal Beginners' Concert for those pupils who are new to their instrument. Parents are most welcome to attend. The same evening is the PTA Social Evening & AGM. Please do come along and enjoy the evening.

House Stars Cup

Heigham maintained their advantage in the House Stars Cup, winning after an extremely close battle with Magdalen.

Heigham House win House Music Festival

The House Music was again highly entertaining with David Lowe (Master of Music for Norwich Cathedral) adjudicating. After the junior and senior solos Conisford began with a very slick and enjoyable version of 'Blue Suede Shoes'. Magdalen followed singing 'Chattanooga Choo Choo', a difficult piece, sung beautifully. The final performance was Heigham's version of the 'Frog Song' with their own lyrics and everyone sang with great enthusiasm. David Lowe judged Heigham to be the winners and the trophy was presented by school governor Ted Witton.

Mr Embling retires
The school said a fond farewell to Mr Embling and good wishes for his retirement. Mr Embling was presented with a picture of the Lower School. Parents and staff have also made generous donations to the MS Society.

Harvest Festival
Many thanks to all the pupils for the gifts of food brought in for our Harvest Festival which were donated to the Salvation Army. The singing and readings in the school chapel were excellent.
